DOFFO

A great introduction to the boutique wineries of Temecula. The Doffos can trace their winemaking history back decades to Argentina, and it shows in each one of their exquisite wines. Loyal wine club members love the private parties that are thrown using their authentic "adobo" outdoor brick-oven. If you're lucky, owner Marcelo Doffo will pour from a limited-production bottle as he tells you about his vintage motorcycle collection and unusual practice of playing classical music in the vineyard to encourage the grapes to grow up happy! On the tasting menu: Viognier, Malbec, Shiraz, Mistura, Cabernet Sauvignon; $10 Standard (6 tastes), $20 VIP (6 premium tastes)

FOOT PATH

Up the driveway, past the citrus and fig trees, horses, and hummingbirds, lies the tasting room barn at Foot Path. The Foote family only needs one room to create their small menu of wines, right in the middle of their certified organic farm. On the tasting menu: Merlot, Zinfandel, Port; $10 for 6 tastes, includes logo glass

Keyways is the only winery in Temecula owned by a woman – and it shows. The low lighting, area rugs, brick fireplace, and comfy chairs create a warm and intimate ambiance that makes this lovely tasting room feel more like your best friend's living room. Terry Delhamer's good sense of style extends to the delightful wine selection and the gourmet pizza and salad bar, offered every weekend. This is the place to grab a bite! On the tasting menu: Cuvee, Petit Verdot, Roussanne, Chardonnay; $10 for 5 tastes, +$3 for each Library Wine Selection
